

Current Affairs

- Your next computer could be a 'Lunatic' as algorithms start assembling information the way a human mind does, they will also show signs of 'bias,superstition and mental illness'.
- DMRC set to introduce AC feeder buses by December 2018. They will run on electricity and CNG, GPS and CCTVs will also be fitted in them.
- ISRO has put into space 'Navigation satellite' IRNSS-II completing the constellation of 7 functional satellites. IRNSS-II will replace faulty spacecraft IRNSS-1A whose atomic clocks stopped working 2 years ago in orbit.
- AADHAAR based biometric authentication and a smart phone will soon be all you will need to board domestic flights in India.
- Manika Batra becomes the first Indian to win a gold medal in Table Tennis (Women's single) in Commonwealth Games.
- India has won 26 gold, 20 silver and 20 bronze medal – (Total 66 medals) in Commonwealth Games.
- 11 South Delhi flyovers to go green. It will be twin targets: South Corporation plans to combat dust pollution and beautify the city.
- UK may ban the sale of plastic straws, cotton buds as part of a push to tackle global marine pollution.
- England to host 100 ball event from 2020. This is a fresh and exciting idea which will appeal to younger audience and attract new fans to the game.
- Number of Engineering seats to go down by 80,000 this year. 200 'substandard' colleges have applied for closure says AICTE(All India Council for Technical Education.)